The candidates who wish to change their preferences indicated initially in the on-line application may revise their preferences using this opportunity. In case of those candidates who do not avail of this opportunity, their original preferences exercised at the time of on-line application will be deemed as final, subject to the modified vacancies as on date.

All the candidates who have appeared in the 2nd Stage CBT during 17th to 19th January, 2017 are accordingly hereby advised to exercise option of filling fresh preferences. The scope of change of preference of posts and/or Railways/PUs is permitted only within the same RRB to which they had applied. No further request for change of preferences beyond the above period or in other forms like physical application etc. will be entertained on any ground.

In case of non-furnishing of fresh preference by any candidate within the above stipulated period, it will be considered that they do not wish to exercise the option and their original preference for posts exercised at the time of on-line application will be deemed as final, subject to the modified vacancies as on date. The result of 2nd stage CBT will be processed on the basis of fresh preferences so exercised.
